Operations and Maintenance

- Winter Storm Recap
- Maintenance Update

Winter Storm Re-cap

- San Pedro Creek vegetation
 - The native vegetation planted at the park faired very well during the February freeze
 - Hardest hit were the Esperanzas and Inland Sea Oats
 - Staff have trimmed down all vegetation and watered.
 - Many plants are already beginning to green up

Eve's Necklace

Red Bud

Esperanza and Little Bluestem

Desert Willow

Autumn Sage

Frog Fruit

Winter Weather Update

- Irrigation System
 - Due to the freeze, some of the irrigation lines throughout the site cracked but have been repaired
 - The irrigation system also cracked and parts were ordered for the repair
 - Staff hand watered the site while waiting for parts to arrive
 - System has been repaired

Maintenance Updates

- Rains from Heaven
 - Team is working with the coating manufacturer to determine the best and most environmentally safest way to remove the coating from the panels
 - Will be taken back to original aluminum panels without a coating
- Algae
 - Sonic Solutions
 - Water/algae sample was sent to be identified.
 - Equipment uses sonic waves to help prevent the growth of algae
